Community Safety

Our core data protection obligations and commitments are set out in the council's primary privacy notice at www.bolton.gov.uk

This notice provides additional privacy information for:

- Members of the public
- Organisations working with the community safety team
- Data subject(s), subject to antisocial behaviour

It describes how we collect, use and share personal information about you

- In relation to Community Safety
- the types of personal information we need to process, including information the law describes as 'special' category because of its sensitivity

It is important that you read this notice, together with any other privacy information we may provide on specific occasions when we are collecting or processing personal information about you, so that you are aware of how and why we are using such information.

The information collected and held may be done so in a variety of ways but will not include automated decisions

Purposes

We collect your personal information for the following purposes:

- To record the details of the data subject(s) reporting antisocial behaviour so a response and follow up can be issued
- To challenge antisocial behaviour and take appropriate action where necessary
- To perform a statutory duty under the Antisocial Behaviour, Crime and Policing Act 2014
- To work with partners in offering support from young offenders

Categories of personal data

In order to carry out these purposes we collect and obtain:

- Basic details about you such as name, address, telephone number, email address and date of birth (complainant only)
- Basic details about you such as name, address and date of birth (Offender)
- Names of individuals offender associates with while causing anti-social behaviour – special category data

Legal basis for processing

The legal basis for processing your personal information is:

- To perform a statutory duty under the Antisocial Behaviour, Crime and Policing Act 2014
- in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority

If you fail to provide certain information when requested, we may not be able to provide the service to you or we may be prevented from complying with our legal obligations.

Information sharing/recipients

We may collect and share personal information about you with the following types of organisations:

- Teams within Bolton Council in order to provide our service to you e.g. children and adult social services
- Other local authorities
- Central Government
- Greater Manchester Police and other Police forces
- Probation Service
- Health services in helping establish your suitability to foster a child
- Schools
- Voluntary and Private sector organisations

We may share information with the organisations listed above in order to provide a service to you or where we are required to do so by law, to safeguard public safety, and in risk of harm or emergency situations

Automated Decisions

For this service:

- All the decisions we make about you involve human intervention

Data retention/criteria

We will only keep your personal information for as long as the law specifies or where the law does not specify this, for the length of time determined by our business requirements.

Rights of individuals

You have certain rights in relation to the council's use of your personal information.

To find out more about how these rights apply in particular circumstances, please refer to our Guide to exercising your rights or alternatively visit the Information Commissioner's web site at www.ico.org.uk

If you wish to exercise your rights or to raise a concern about the handling of your personal information by the council, please contact our Information Governance Team at information.security@bolton.gov.uk.

If you are still unsatisfied you should contact The Information Commissioner's Office by post at the ICO, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire, SK9 5AF or by telephone: 0303 123 1113

Updates to Privacy Notice

We may update or revise this Privacy Notice at any time so please refer to the version published on our website for the most up to date details
