

Trauma Informed Practice and the School Environment: Creating Connections, building a resilient school community - Limited Places Available – Book Now!

Trainer: Knowledge Change Action Ltd

Date: Wednesday, 29th April, 2026

Time: 9:00 AM – 4:30 PM

Venue: Claremont House Saint George's Rd, Bolton BL1 2BY

Who Should Attend?

Secondary school classroom teachers and in-class support staff.

What you'll learn:

- The science behind resilience and vulnerability
- How fear, flow, and human needs (safety, belonging, mattering) shape behaviour
- Strategies to create emotionally safe, inclusive environments
- Practical skills to build resilience across your school community
- Designing physical spaces that promote healing and buffer stress

Aims of the day:

- ✓ Understand the research underpinning resilience and vulnerability
- ✓ Map resilience in your school community
- ✓ Apply practical approaches to strengthen resilience

Booking Information

- Reserve your place today – spaces are limited!
To request a place, please complete Trauma Informed Approach Practice Nomination Form.
- Once we have processed your request, you will receive an email from Form LMS inviting you to the Me-Learning system.
- You need to click on the link to activate your account. If you don't activate it, you will not be booked on the course.

If you need to cancel your place or require further information, please email learninganddevelopment@bolton.gov.uk

If you do not cancel in time, charges will apply. For more details, please visit the Learning and development page.